44. PRESENTATION ON POTENTIAL SECOND WORLD WAR PROJECT – RUTHIN MUNITIONS FACTORY

Councillor Ian Lewney, Chair of the Planning and Development Committee, welcomed members of the Amenities Committee and Julie Masters, Shepherds Hut Reworked, who gave a presentation on 'Under the Radar', a project looking at the workers in the Munitions Factory at the Old Gaol during the Second World War, the evacuees that came to the area and using the Clwydian Range as a decoy to divert bombs from larger urban areas. Ruthin Musical Theatre will be presenting an application for £100,000 to Heritage Lottery Fund to host a 1940's Extravaganza in Ruthin, in September 2018, to tie in with Open Doors possibly, which would involve a re-enactment of the Imperial War Museum's footage of ladies walking to the factory, leading to a 1940's food inspired street party with 1940's musical festival in the Gaol and a street theatre production showing the importance of women during the war. The intention is to build upon it in following years, aiming for three street theatre performances and exchange visits between pupils of primary school in Ruthin and Liverpool. Ms. Master said that she had been appointed Co-ordinator for the bid, and initially was seeking a letter of support from Ruthin Town Council and other organisations, and if the bid was successful would be seeking representatives to be on the project steering group. Members took the opportunity to ask questions and make suggestions. Councillor Lewney thanked her for the presentation.
