Additional information

Despite having some reserves, the show has made a financial loss over the last few years. We are working towards raising the number of visitors and hope to make a profit soon.

Our main concern is the weather – two ‘washout’ years would impact the bank account severely.

Everything relating to the show is bilingual.

This year’s project is to raise the profile of the Horse Show. We had some competition with Llanrwst Show, but we are extremely pleased that they have changed their date. A significant amount of spend will be on raising the standard in the Horse show.
